In memory of Brother Cassius M. Warner who died April 12, 1929.

Once again a brother Mason, having completed the designs written for human life, (rests) passed on to the portals of Eternity and entered the Grand Lodge of the New Jerusalem and hath received as his reward the white stone with the new name written thereon.

HONOR TO MOTHERS

Point Pleasant Sunday school of Opasium Creek rendered a short and quickly prepared program Sunday eve, May 9, in honor of Mother's day, which was well attended, there being all the seating room and a greater portion of the standing room of the house occupied.

The program began with song, "America" followed by an address by A. M. Myers. Song, "Little Brown Church", and prayer by Bro. Shelton. Then came several recitations and songs, all of which were appropriate for the occasion and which had been fittingly arranged by the committee. Mmes. Day, Myers and Germann. Program was closed with song, "God Be With You Till We Meet Again", followed by the Lord's prayer repeated by the school.

This little Sunday school is continually growing, as its records will show, there being just three times as many scholars and more than double the collection today there was a year ago today.

Sunday school every Sunday at 2:30 p. m. Come on, good people, let's help this little Sunday school to continue to grow.

One Who Was There.

W. M. C. CLOSES BEST YEAR IN HISTORY OF THE SCHOOL

With the closing exercises Monday evening and the presentation of diplomas to the class of graduates the best year in the annals of Will

Mayfield College passed into the history of this worthy educational institution, and thirteen splendid young men and young ladies went out from it equipped for the problems and battles of life.

The several programs rendered during the closing exercises were carefully chosen and well prepared and the rendition was all that could have been expected. The audience each evening filled the Baptist church to its capacity and all enjoyed the exercises in the superlative degree.

The music deserves special mention and was highly entertaining and always held the closest attention. The numbers were all carefully and appropriately selected and seemed to have been faultlessly rendered.

Dr. Wood of Kansas City preached the sermon Sunday and the large congregation gave him closest attention evidencing the fact that he did the subject, as well as the occasion, full justice. It is hardly necessary to say that his visit to our town on this occasion was highly appreciated and it is hoped he may find it convenient to visit our town again.

Professor Douglas of the Cape Girardeau Teachers college attended the commencement proper Monday evening and with very appropriate remarks presented the diplomas to the graduates, who are Messrs. W. M. Wigger, Oscar L. Pierce, C. C. Conrad, Robert E. Wood, R. McCoy Moyers, Paul A. Berry and E. C. Abernathy. Misses May Whitener, Exeda Malone, Bessie Clingensmith, Blanch Robins, Ruth Drysdale and Mabel Edwards.

The board of trustees met Monday and transacted some routine business, and adjourned until the last of the month when the faculty will probably be chosen.

LITTLE WHITEWATER

(Crowded out last week)
Health is very good.
Our farmers are doing, sowing oats and are plowing and planting corn.

Jesse Bollinger and family visited at D. F. Bollinger's Saturday night.

Oran and Gladys Bollinger of Cape Girardeau came up on a visit Saturday and remained Sunday.

Our merchant, G. W. Mayfield, has purchased himself a new car and likes it very well.

Miss Elsie Masters visited her sister, Cora Bollinger, one night last week and they all went fishing and had a nice time.

D. F. Bollinger and family made a business trip in their car to Sedgewickville, and would have enjoyed the trip but for the condition of the roads.

Earl Bollinger has been very sick, but is some better now. Jim Hasey visited at Avery Bollinger's Saturday night.

Lutesville Boy

A popular disease has broken out among Martin Farnsworth's cattle, and he has been sick a week with a very short time, the last one being last Sunday. They had to be shot and they were until they die. They are well up to their death. Veterinarians have visited the farm, but cannot explain the trouble. Jackson Cash says.

MASONS ATTENDED CHURCH IN BODY

About a hundred Masons assembled at their hall in this city last Sunday morning and marched in a body to the Methodist church to attend services.

They went in a body, and as an organization it is an endorsement of the order and of the church. Rev. W. A. Haggard, pastor of the Methodist church, is a Mason, and he delivered a sermon on "The Masonic Order" and also sang "The Masonic Hymn".

Huskey

Esq. Huskey plowed for Sherman Cady Monday.

Walter Beard got thrown from a bicycle Sunday and received some bruises.

Mrs. Sherman Cady visited Mrs. T. Huskey Sunday.

Sunday being Mother's day Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Mitchell and family and Misses Audrey and Nellie Sadler all visited home folks, and, of course, Mrs. Sadler was delighted to have them all at home.

A recent letter from Mrs. Samuel Platts of Westby, Mont., to relatives here states that they had a terrible blizzard there April 15. Trains could not run and mail service stopped for a while. She says she likes her new home and enjoys being near her children. Her mother, Mrs. Matilda Caldwell, is in fairly good health and while her own health is greatly improved, yet she has not fully recovered from the effects of the severe operations she underwent at the Rochester hospital in Minnesota, presided over by the famous Mayo brothers, one of which served over seas during the late war.

Esq. Huskey recently killed two chicken hawks. Tom Bollinger also killed a couple recently, it is reported, and the two Toms certainly have the thanks of the women who are trying to raise poultry, and all hope the good work may go on.

We understand that young Mathena, who was arrested last winter in this county for rustling cattle and turned over to Stoddard county authorities, made his escape from the Bloomfield jail and is supposed by some to be now hiding in the back of the Gravel Hill.

Mrs. Herman Haggard, a very hard clip smoker, has been better. This morning.

Sherman C. Farnsworth called Saturday night and is well.

Tom Stetson was out this morning to get one of his chickens. Several weeks ago he was out along the back of the hill, to get the chicken, he was out. The Fox. He was out in the day, the night, it was the same. He was the same in the day.

John Farnsworth called Saturday night and is well.

Now it is a very busy day.

Ministers' and Laymen's Conference of S. E. Missouri

The Ministers' and Laymen's Conference met at Marble Hill, May 11 and 12. It was the hope of those interested in Will Mayfield College and other matters pertaining to the Baptist cause that each of the churches of Southeast Missouri be represented.

Monday afternoon at the Baptist Church, this program was opened with a very able discourse by Rev. Sam P. Holt of Jackson, Mo., on the subject "What Contribution Should Will Mayfield College Make to the Cause?" Rev. Holt distinctly pointed out the significance of those trained ministers in the pulpit and more consecrated laymen in all the work of the life.

Dr. W. H. Setzer of Caruthersville, Mo., followed with a few well chosen words stressing the training of the Ministry in the teaching of the Bible.

Mayor Rice of Hornsboro, Mo., contrasted the Christian schools to the state schools and the advantages of the Christian schools in regard to the character, teaching and principles.

Mr. J. W. Rice, our local secretary, contrasted this session of the conference by setting forth a few of the qualifications of an efficient minister.

The evening service was the first session of S. E. Missouri's first Christian Union. The organization was organized by Rev. J. M. Starnes of Marshall, Mo. Charles Hart, Secretary, Rev. Sam P. Holt, and the local secretary, Dr. W. H. Setzer, presided over the organization. The charge and Rev. William Engstrom, of Jackson, Mo., presided over the ordination prayer. The burden of Dr. Setzer's message was to set forth the need for the study of Bible with the ministry.

Thursday morning May 11th the morning session of the college and church. Rev. J. E. Brown of Fredericktown, Mo., to the students, laying emphasis on the need of Christ in the life of the student.

Rev. William Engstrom, followed with a discussion "Who is the salt of the earth, and the light of the world?" Both these discussions emphasized the deep responsibility of the followers of Christ in the world.

We were then privileged to hear Rev. Patterson of Arnold, Mo., bring a message to the school teachers as to their vital relations to the community and the church.

Rev. Ed L. Stoval concluded the program with a discussion "Supporting an evangelist in the name of the college."

The conference was a very interesting session in which those present were better acquainted with the work of Will Mayfield College and other questions of vital importance to the Baptist of Southeast Missouri.

Raises Subscription

Editor Mattocks of the Chaffee Signal announces that on May 17 the subscription price of the Signal will be raised to $1.75 per year. We do not quite understand Bro. Mattocks' idea for $1.75, for if he did all his own work and owned his shop to boot he cannot possibly produce a newspaper for $1.75; $2.00 is as cheap as any small publisher can produce a paper for, and with the automatic increase in postage due the first of July we do not believe that $2.00 will cover the actual cost of producing a paper. The Banner has long contemplated such a move, but have been trying to hang on at the present price until
